We invite you to connect through dance, music and storytelling in the Stories in the Moment program this Fall (Aug-Dec 2023 - stay tuned for additional dates)! Stories in the Moment is a program for people living with dementia, care partners and friends to connect in dance to amplify their voices and discover new ways to tell their stories, through dance, movement as well as words. Join community dance artist Magda Kaczmarzka and guest artists with DanceStream Projects in partnership with Queens Community House Social Adult Day Services as together we create "Our Portraits" - dance stories that celebrate our community!

People living with dementia, care partners and friends are welcome!
